

The mission statement of Southern Peaks Public Library is to inform, educate, and culturally enrich the population of Alamosa County and the San Luis Valley. We offer a broad range of library materials and information services as part of a larger library community with whom we share resources. Our helpful and expert staff provides quality service and programs in a welcoming environment. We encourage lifelong learning, knowledge through self-education, and the joy of reading.

Adopted by the
Southern Peaks Public Library
Board of Trustees
April 26, 1996